Red Squares

In this work, layers and layers of red squares and rectangles are felted into a unified composition using an industrial felting machine. More than 7.5' long and nearly 5' wide, the cascade of color commands attention in a dining room, behind a reception desk, or in a grand entryway.

ABOUT WALLWORKS

Wallworks, in their most essential guise, are large-scale, one-of-a-kind wall hangings felted from reclaimed EILEEN FISHER clothing. The variety of materials, colors, and hand-arranged compositions renders each piece wholly unique. The size and textural quality of Wallworks make for a stunning addition to private and public spaces alike, providing visual impact and a modicum of acoustic dampening. Wallworks were first displayed in the Waste No More exhibit at Salone Internazionale del Mobile di Milano, the prestigious furniture and design trade fair.
